Death of Isaac W. Bump

The Daily Call of Longmont, Colorado, date of July 27, has the following account of the death at that place of Isaac W. Bump of this city.

Died at the home of his son, J. E. Bump, on Third avenue, Tuesday evening, July 26, 1910, of an injury, Isaac W. Bump, aged 76 years.

The deceased was a resident of Ponca City, Oklahoma, and came to this city with his wife a few weeks ago to spend the summer with their son, J. E. Bump and family. This is the first trip West the old people had ever undertaken and they had anticipated it with great pleasure and planned one of the most pleasant visits of their lives. Tuesday, July 19, Mr. J. E. Bump and father took a trip to the mountains and drove up the north fork to a point near Estes Park, where they spent the day. In making an attempt to alight from the buggy, the elder Mr. Bump fell against the wheel as the result of a slight motion of the team and broke his hip. He was removed home as quickly as possible and from that time until his death he has slowly failed.

He leaves a wife, five sons and three daughters to mourn his untimely death. Four sons, R. R. Bump, of Des Moines, Iowa, and C. C. and F. W. Bump of Rose Hill, Iowa, and J. E. Bump of this city will be present at the funeral which will be held from the home of Mr. J. E. Bump at 1117 Third avenue at two o'clock on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Bump was a Methodist, and the services which will be short, will be in charge of Rev. J. F. Porter of the Methodist church and Elder C. C. Dodds of the Christian church.

The four sons will act as pall bearers. The remains will be shipped to Ponca City, Oklahoma, where on Sunday funeral services will be held and interment made. The remains will be accompanied by the four sons and Mrs. Bump.

(Isaac W. Bump was the 5th great grandson of Edouad Bompasse [Edward Bumpass] of the ship Fortune which landed in Plymouth on November 10, 1621. He was also the 7th great grandson of Elder William Brewster of the ship Mayflower.)
