Oma Moncravie Rites Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Oma E. Moncravie will be 10 a.m. Wednesday in the chapel of E. M. Trout and Sons Funeral Home. Ernest Gough will read the Christian Science service. Burial will be in Odd Fellows Cemetery.

The family has suggested that those wishing to honor Mrs. Moncravie's memory may do so by making a contribution to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Ponca City.

Mrs. Moncravie died early Monday morning at the home of her son, John, in Tulsa. Her home was here at 218 ½ North Fourth.

She was born July 9, 1903, in Longmont, Colo., and at an early age came with her parents to Ponca City, receiving her education in the schools here.

She had been saleswoman and buyer in ladies ready to wear since early in the 1930's, having worked for the Johnson Clothing Store in the women's department and being manager and buyer for Edward's from 1954 until the time of her retirement.

In September 1923 she was married to John N. Moncravie, who preceded her in death in 1943.

Mrs. Moncravie was a long-time member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, and the Ponca City Business and Professional Women's Club.

Surviving are her son and granddaughter, Mary Lee Moncravie, of Tulsa, two nieces, Mrs. Robert (Mary Kathryn) Campbell of Scott City, Kan., and Mrs. Walter (Betty Lou) Teas of Baltimore, and a cousin, Mrs. Ethel Vittetoe, 312 South Fourth.
